

Foodwise Volunteer Handbook

Updated August 2022

foodwise.org

Hello!

Welcome to Foodwise (formerly CUESA) and thank you for your interest in becoming a volunteer. Since 1994, Foodwise has been dedicated to growing thriving communities through the power and joy of local food. We do that through operating high-quality farmers markets, food access initiatives, and education programs to connect eaters of all ages with fresh food and local farms.

We know that it would be impossible to accomplish our nonprofit mission without your help. The commitment and hard work of our volunteers are pivotal to our success. We hope you'll join our team.

As a volunteer, you will have opportunities to work in many aspects of the organization. You will attend a comprehensive orientation, followed by additional training, to prepare you for your chosen volunteer positions. Your time is extremely valuable to us, and we strive to make the volunteer experiences at Foodwise fun, inspiring, engaging, and educational. A few times a year we gather with our volunteers to celebrate with field trips, DIY workshops, and lots of good food! We hope you'll learn, make new friends, and feel more connected to your local food shed and community.

Like you, we believe that fresh, local food is right, not a privilege; that farmers markets for everyone; and that each and every one of us has food wisdom to share. We believe that, together, we can transform our food system for the better.

Your participation is critical to making this vision a reality, so thank you for showing up! We sincerely hope you will join us in growing a fair, regenerative, and delicious food future for all.

Warm regards,

Introduction

Volunteers are significant members of the Foodwise team. We work together to provide the best service and experiences possible to our visitors, and want your participation to be beneficial and rewarding. Your loyalty and dedication to furthering the mission, reputation, and integrity of Foodwise are of the utmost importance.

We recognize that your reasons for volunteering with Foodwise may extend beyond your interest in our mission. For some, volunteering may provide an opportunity to directly learn more about sustainable agriculture and food systems, or other subjects of interest. For others, volunteering may help you establish food or agriculture industry connections that might help you professionally. For many, volunteering provides the chance meet new people who enjoy the same things you do, like fresh, tasty food. All of these are legitimate possibilities, and it is our sincerest wish that the volunteer experience be mutually beneficial for everyone.

This Volunteer Handbook is provided to inform volunteers and potential volunteers of the policies and operating procedures of Foodwise, and of the many available service opportunities. The Handbook is not a contract for employment or a guarantee of a continuing relationship. Foodwise reserves the right to change policies and procedures or to revise the contents of the Volunteer Handbook at its sole discretion, without prior notification to volunteers.

Our Values

Foodwise is committed to centering these values across all aspects of our work:

Equity

Good food is a fundamental human right. We seek inclusivity, economic prosperity, and access to good food and food knowledge for all people.

Community

Through food we cultivate connection among the people and places of the Bay Area and beyond. We nurture a community of sharing of food, knowledge, and culture. Whether you grow, make, or eat food, everyone is welcome at the table.

Stewardship

We enjoy and take pride in the bounty of our region and we embrace our responsibility as protectors of the resources upon which that bounty relies. We defend and support farmers, makers, workers, and eaters, urban and rural dwellers alike.

Joy

When we take joy in the discovery of delicious local food together, our bodies and communities are healthier. When economies flourish, people thrive. Together we are more resilient and whole.

General Procedures & Policies

Foodwise volunteers and staff work together alongside chef and author Rick Martinez for a free Market to Table cooking demo at the Ferry Plaza Farmers Market.

Procedures

Becoming a Volunteer

To become a volunteer with Foodwise, please complete the following steps:

Policies

Absences

Your supervisor and co-workers value your contributions and they depend on you to be present at the scheduled time. If you know you will be absent, you should notify your supervisor or the Foodwise office as soon as possible so a replacement can be found.

Accidents or Injuries; Emergency Procedures

If you or a visitor is injured, you should immediately contact any Foodwise staff or Ferry Building staff.

Background Check

Although they are generally not required, at times certain volunteer positions may require that applicants complete a background check prior to placement. The results of these checks will remain confidential.

Confidentiality and Nondisclosure

Prior to your volunteer service, you will be required to read and sign the "Confidentiality and Nondisclosure Agreement" in which you agree to hold confidential or proprietary information in trust and agree that Confidential Information be used only for purposes expressly permitted by Foodwise.

COVID Safety & Public Health

Foodwise follows the latest guidance of the Center for Disease Control and California and San Francisco Departments of Public Health with regard to public health. If requested, share proof of COVID or other vaccination before your shift(s). If you test positive for COVID, monkey pox, or another infectious disease, stay home and alert your supervisor as soon as possible so they can arrange coverage of your shift. You may be required to wear a mask and/or gloves when volunteering. If so, wear your own mask or gloves, or Foodwise will provide a mask or gloves for you to use.

Dress Code

It is important that volunteers be dressed in a presentable and appropriate fashion, as well as safely and comfortably. Volunteers working in the markets should wear sturdy footwear and are encouraged to wear a hat and sunglasses, or use sunscreen for protection. Volunteers for special programs or fundraising activities should dress in a manner appropriate to the event.

Equal Opportunity

It is the policy of Foodwise to treat all volunteers and staff equally on the basis of job-related qualifications regardless of gender, national origin, age, or any other classification proscribed under local, state, or federal law.

Equipment

Foodwise generally provides all the necessary tools, safety equipment, and supplies to volunteers and staff so that they can accomplish their assigned tasks. However, you may bring and use your own tools or safety equipment if preferred.

Resources such as reference and reading materials are available from the Foodwise office and may be borrowed for short lengths of time.

Evaluation

Your job performance will be evaluated regularly. Depending on the extent and complexity of your job, the evaluations may be formal or informal, written or oral. It is important that you communicate clearly and frequently with your supervisor. Discuss any successes, difficulties, suggestions, or questions you have.

Hold Harmless and Release Of Liability

Foodwise does its best to ensure the safest work environment possible. Prior to your volunteer service, you will be required to read and sign the "Waiver and Release of Liability and Hold Harmless Agreement" in which you agree to indemnify and hold harmless Foodwise from any loss, liability, damage, or costs that may be incurred due to your volunteer activity.

Identification

You should always conspicuously wear your name tag when interacting with the public. It is important visitors are able to identify individuals who can help them with directions, concerns, and information. Please immediately report lost name tags to the Volunteer Coordinator for replacement.

Maintenance of Personal Data

You are responsible for updating personal data, such as change of address, contact telephone number, etc., with the Volunteer Coordinator.

No Solicitation/No Distribution

The conduction of non-Foodwise business on site, such as canvassing, collection of funds, pledges, circulation of petitions, solicitation of memberships, or any other similar types of activity, is strictly prohibited.

Open Door Policy

Should you have or foresee a problem that may interfere with your commitment or ability to adequately perform your responsibilities, please immediately discuss the matter with your supervisor or another member of the staff. The Volunteer Coordinator is always available to discuss changes, problems, or concerns.

Parking

Parking is not provided for any volunteer or paid staff or board member, although parking validation for pre-approved lots is available. Those lots and parking rates can be found on the Foodwise website.

Photo Release

Prior to your volunteer service, you will be required to read and sign the "Photographic Release" form in which you allow Foodwise to use your photographs, image, and/or voice, and/or story, and/or name in any media in such manner as Foodwise may deem advisable. It is recommended but not required.

Professional Standards

The manner in which we as volunteers and paid staff conduct ourselves should create a favorable and lasting impression of Foodwise and its operations and activities. The continued success of the organization depends on the quality, integrity, expertise, and professionalism of all our staff.

Market customers and program participants must receive prompt and courteous attention and a helpful and meaningful response. Foodwise staff should be contacted to assist in any situation that is beyond volunteers' control. Visitors to our facilities must always be treated with deference, tact, and courtesy. Similarly, respect and thoughtfulness towards your fellow workers will always be expected.

Reporting for Duty, Keeping Work Hours

You should report to your assigned supervisor upon arrival. Supervisors will provide instructions for storing coats, bags, and other personal items. Minimize bringing valuable items with you if possible. You must sign out upon completion of your shift, noting the total number of hours worked. Keeping an accurate tally of volunteer work hours is very important.

Resigning from the Volunteer Program

To end a volunteer commitment, please notify your supervisor or the Volunteer Coordinator of that decision and the effective date.

Safety and Security Procedures

You are expected to observe and follow all the safety and security policies of Foodwise. You are also encouraged to report unsafe conditions to your supervisor, the Volunteer Coordinator, or Executive Director. If you observe any unsafe or inappropriate behavior by other volunteers, staff, visitors, or participants, contact any of the available paid staff.

Sexual Harassment

All volunteers, employees, supervisors, and members of management, both male and female, are strictly prohibited from sexually harassing or making improper advances towards other volunteers, guests, employees, supervisors, or members of management. Sexual harassment includes unwelcome or unsolicited verbal, physical, or sexual conduct that is made a term of condition of service or employment, is used as the basis of employment or advancement decision, or has the purpose or effect of unreasonably interfering with work or creating an intimidating, hostile, or offensive environment.

Social Media

Sometimes volunteers like to share their experiences with Foodwise in conversations with family and friends, or to wider online community. If you're on social media, please connect, interact, and tag us in your posts, so we can respond or share!

- Facebook: facebook.com/foodwiseorg
- Instagram: instagram.com/foodwise
- Twitter: twitter.com/foodwiseorg

We're always excited to interact with our volunteers online and appreciate you spreading the word about Foodwise's mission and programs to your own networks. While we enjoy seeing our volunteers post about their experiences, we ask that you please respect the following guidelines:

- Please do not post photos of youth participants (under 18) in our programs. When posting photos of adults, please ask for their consent before posting photos of them.
- Please write from your own point of view, not Foodwise's. Be clear about your volunteer role in the organization. As a volunteer with Foodwise, you represent us while you are performing your volunteer service, but you are not an official spokesperson.
- If you've had a negative experience, please talk with us directly so we can discuss and try to remedy the situation. Please refrain from personal attacks or being disrespectful toward others. Respect people's privacy and be aware of your potential impact on community members, such as staff, other volunteers, farmers and food makers, and market shoppers.

If you have questions, please talk to a staff member before sharing online. We're always happy to answer any questions. We always like to hear our volunteers' perspectives and may even want to share them with the broader Foodwise community. You can email brie@foodwise.org.

Termination of Volunteers

Foodwise reserves the right to terminate any volunteer for violations of policies or procedures, or for failure to perform assigned duties.

Vehicles and Equipment

You are generally not authorized to drive any vehicles on behalf of Foodwise. You may use Foodwise equipment only in connection with your duties and after receiving appropriate training.

Weather

Foodwise staff make a strong effort to continue all operations and events under mildly inclement weather. In the event of major weather events or natural disasters, Foodwise staff will notify you if normal operations are canceled. If you do not receive notification of cancelation, you are expected to report as scheduled.
